

IMAGINE GREEN B/N MINUTES
Thurs., Aug. 23, 2007

Present – Christina Schulz, Aimee Bullinger, Julie Elzanati, Michelle Covi, Joe Grabill, Myra Gordon

Record of Aug. 18 – Christina will have literal transcript by Monday to be followed by a creative interpretation (Christina and Joe) of the brainstorming which will be ready soon for review by the Planning Team and then out to the Aug. 18 group and to interested others. Look for seminal mission statement ideas and action plans.

Website – Aimee will give us a sense of the layout and logo and check out web domain. Cost payment? There will be links to literal transcript and creative interpretation of Aug. 18 and to other communities (e.g., Imagine Green Madison) with occasional features. There will be 2 message boards, one for Planning Team and one for others.

Continuity with Aug. 18 people (and other interested people) --

Virtual community – Literal transcript; creative interpretation, etc.

Community Assessment – E.g., Think Tank (Angelo)

Creative Activity – Env. Clubs, drama group, essay contest, good/bad photos, Cool Globes, etc.

Three Committees – Environment, Economy, Quality of Life

April 8 planning –

Luncheon –

Media – Not contacted until website ready with literal transcript and creative interpretation. Have media interview various voices.

Incorporation – No need for now. Perhaps role with Community Foundation and Stafford Grant (Myra)

April Conference Preparation --

April 11 and 12, Friday and Saturday

Speaker – Check on Dr. Robert to be here for several days and perhaps piggy-backing with Chicago (et al) – Co-sponsors: IWU, ISU, Heartland, League of Woman Voters, etc. (Julie)

Groundwork for Study Groups – Like Natural Step groups; contact Heartland curriculum person (Julie); Look at Natural Step on web and then link to “Big Picture”